I Can't Figure It Out

As my fellow classmates at Cheverus can attest, I was always super at problem solving during my high school days. But lately, I have been lying in bed at night trying to figure this one out.

‘ If a fly was born without wings, would it be called a walk ‘ ??????’

On a recent trip to Las Vegas, my wife and I attended Sunday Mass at one of the many Catholic Churches in the city.

A little known fact about Las Vegas ( there are more Catholic Churches there than there are casinos.)

Not surprisingly, a lot of people that attend Sunday Mass put casino chips in the basket rather than cash. Being the nosey type that I am, I went into the Sacristy after Mass to ask the Pastor about this custom.

The Pastor told me that they get chips from so many different casinos, the churches bring all their chips to a nearby Monastery where the Chip Monks sort them out and take them to the appropriate casinos and cash them in.
